Persons intending to bid at the sale must attend in person or by a duly constituted agent.

The sale will be subject to the following conditions:—

1. The purchaser of the contract shall collect fees on shops.

2. For every item collected, the contractor will be required to issue a ticket in the form approved by the Sub-Division Officer. The contractor should make his own arrangements to provide himself with a sufficient number of ticket books with counterfoils and these books should be made available for inspection by officers on Jatra duty not below the rank of a Revenue Inspector.

3. The person whose bid is finally accepted as the highest should deposit the full amount of the sale at once. In default of payment of the deposit immediately after the close of the sale, a resale will be conducted and he will be made responsible for any loss by such resale, but will not be entitled to any increase that may result by such resale. The deposit made by him or such portion as the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit shall be forfeited to Government.

4. The sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner. An appeal against the Deputy Commissioner's order confirming the sale will lie to the Muzrai Commissioner within fifteen days after the sale is confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

5. The sale conducting officer is not bound to accept any bid offered after the close of the sale.

6. The sale confirmation order of the Deputy Commissioner will be intimated to the sale purchaser and he should execute a mutchalika to Government before the claim for collection is delivered to him.

7. Bidders should also conform to the other obligations laid down by the sale conducting officer at the time of sale.

8. The contractor shall not be entitled to any remission of the contract amount or to any compensation on account of any cause whatsoever.

9. The contractor should make his own arrangements for collection work.

10. The contractor and his employees shall always behave courteously towards the public and shall not harass them or give them trouble of any kind.

11. In case of breach of the above sale conditions, the contractor will be liable for forfeiture to Government of the deposit amount and he will be made responsible for any loss incurred.

12. The schedule of fees to be levied on shops may be ascertained in the Taluk Office, Shikarpur.
